One Burial Space For Only $95

GARDEN MAUSOLEUM—Garden of the Good Shepherd

YES, I WANT TO TAKE ADVANTAGE OF WOODLAWN CEMETERY'S OFFER AND SAVE $305

Without obligation, I would like to receive information on your $95 Limited Offer for one burial space. In addition, I would like to receive your Family Portfolio Record File Free.

NAME ADDRESS NO STAMP NEEDED-FILL IN AND MAIL TODAY

Send information about

above ground burial

WETRO PROFILE

Section B

artus Jenkins, lives up to his name. Whether on stage, screen, or behind the scene, Artartus' in-

Develop an Artartus ap-INTRODUCING the Health Page, a new monthly feature on how to live to a ripe old age and look good doing it. An apple a day and a health page a

AN EVENING OF UNDERSTANDING: Does the name Rastafarian raise question marks? Ignorance leads to apprehension. Dispel the doubts, discover what Rastafarianism is all about. Page B4.

BUSINESS PULSE

month ought to do the trick

CATCH A RISING STAR and it will lead you to, of all places, MWBOA. That's right! Barbara Robinson believes in sharing her successes with other women who want to succeed in the business world. Want to learn her secrets? These are the requirements: pad, pencil

THE LIVING CHURCH

FATHER'S DAY go by unnoticed? Not by one area group. For them Father's Day is a year long celebration of manhood's highest calling. Story

SOCIAL SECURITY SWEEPSTAKES: Why wait 'til what's left of your hair has turned gray to profit from your social security number? The AFRO has a quicker road to your bene-

FRIDAY PLUS

Insertion

Imanifollowers:

No turning back

By Diana Carter AFRO Staff Intern

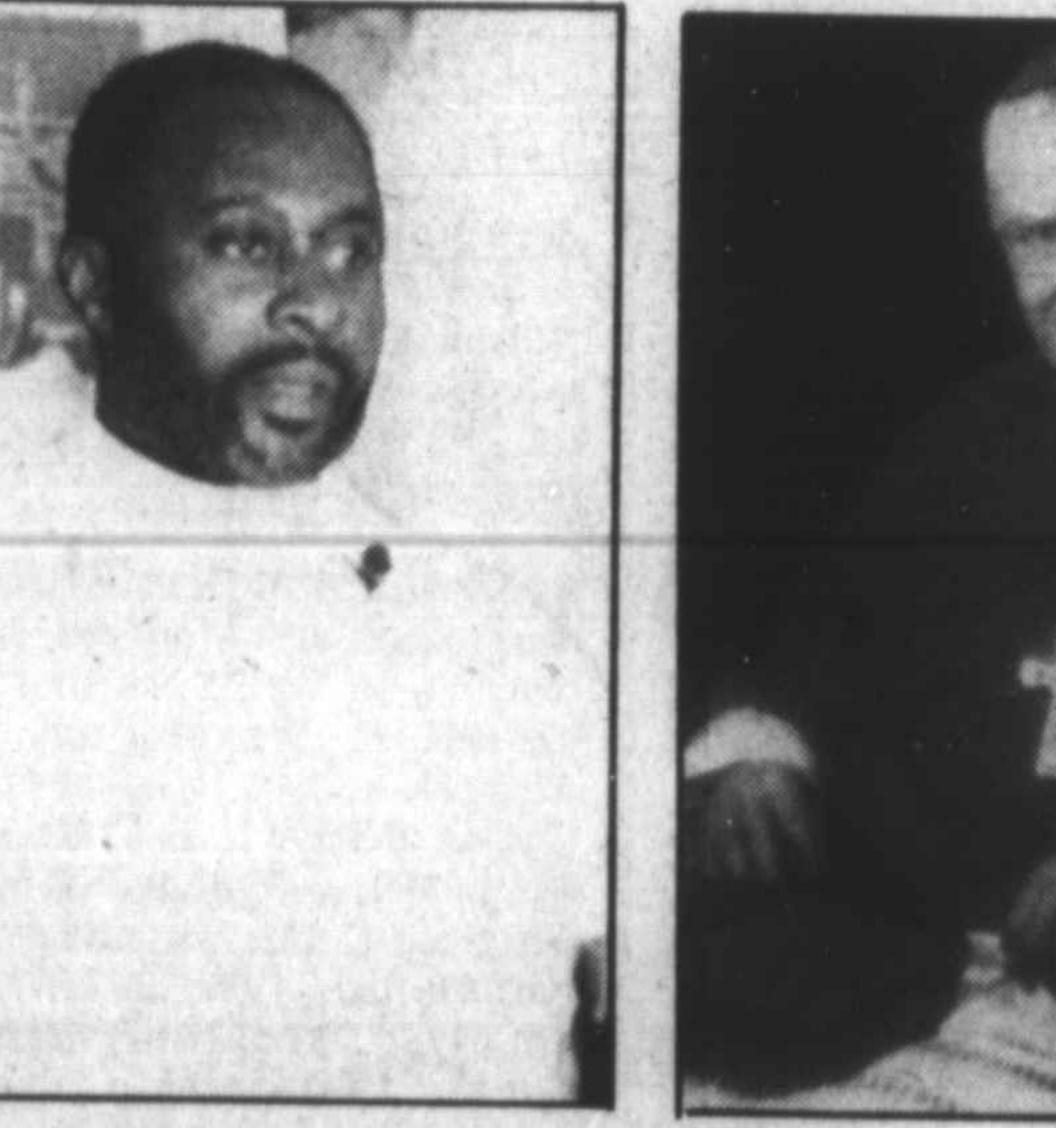

Father George A. Stallings the Annabelle E. Ferguson Auditorium in Suitland, MD, amidst rumors he is seeking a reconciliation with the Catholic Church.

The rumors, which have not been confirmed, are believed to have Rev. Stallings returning to the Catholic Church despite defying Cardinal James A. Hickey's disapproval of the Imani Temple's

Father William E. Lori, , said, "We have news accounts. We really

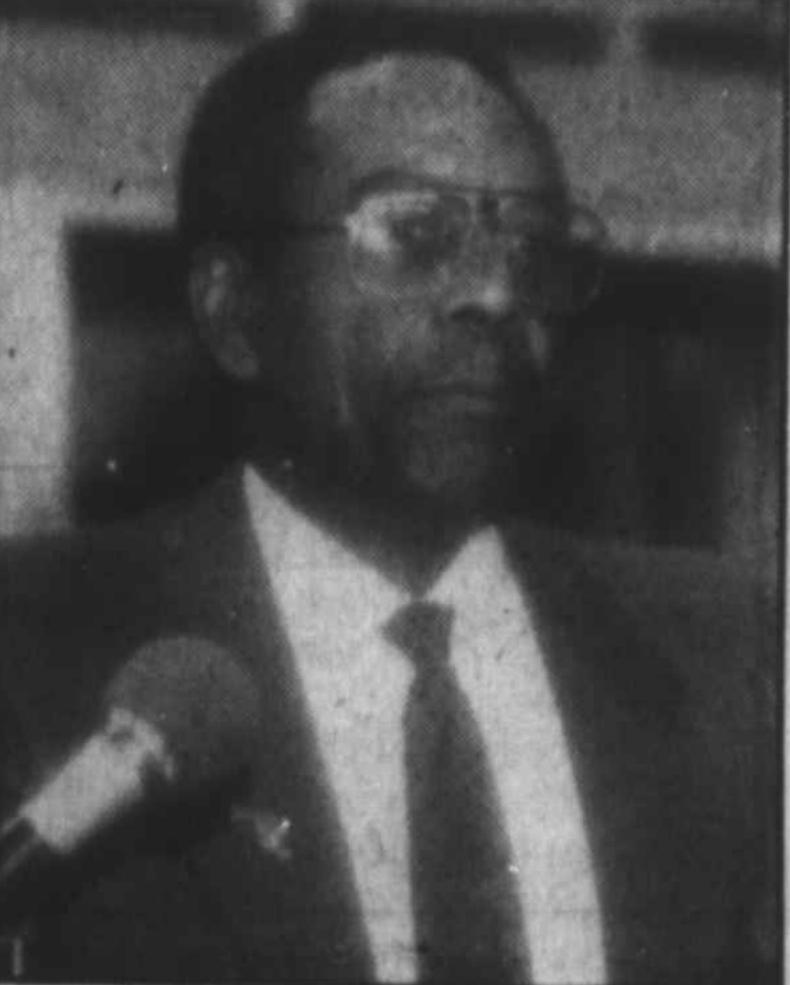

(Continued on Page A2)

Cardinal James Hickey (right) said he would welcome a reconciliation with Father George Stallings.

Lewis rejects CEBO offer:

Whitten returns

Benjamin Whitten

Leslie L. Lewis, who was selected last week to serve as Council for Equal Business longtime director Sam

By Helen Glover Cook

AFRO Staff Writer

candidacy for the post. CEBO board of directors Chairman, John Murphy, III gressman Parren Mitchell said, "The board recently met and Congresswoman Shirley and approved Dr. Benjamin Chisholm.

(Continued on Page A2)

LATE CITY EDITION

BALTIMORE

BALTIMORE, MD

97th Year No. 52

50 CENTS

The NAACP passed an emergency resolution Thursday condemning Supreme

(Continued on Page A6)

July 15, 1989

80th NAACP confab:

Supreme Court condemned

More than 16,000 people were in attendance at the 80th annual National Association for the Advancement of Colered People (NAACP) convention this past week in Detroit, Mi.

Following the tradition of honoring black Americans who have made significant contributions, to combating civil rights issues, two Medal, and the Thalheimer

Baltimore branch wins award

Each year, a branch of the NAACP whose membership totals 1,000 or more, is presented the Thalheimer Award for outstanding program activity.

The Baltimore branch received the second place prestigious awards were award at last night's closing presented, the Spingarn banquet. George Buntin, executive secretary, was on hand to receive the award.

AFRO Staff Writer

By Hamil Harris

AFRO Staff Writer

The impeachment proceedings of Florida Judge

Alcee Hastings began this week in the U.S. Senate and although Hastings was impeached a year ago by the House of Representatives the Miami Judge still maintains that he is innocent and being tried twice for the same

In 1983 Hastings was acquitted by a federal jury on racketeering charges. The Justice department has con-alleges that Hastings lied to the federal grand jury and is nerstone of the justice system

in America and to tamper

with it in this manner to im-

(Continued on Page A2)

"The jury system is the cor-

Stuy explodes after (Continued on Page A2)

Hastings fears foul groups New Edition and Guy last weekend. Shown in this 1984 AFRO file photo are the original members of New Edition: Rickey Bell, Ronald De Voe, Ralph Tresvant, Michael Bivins and Bobby Brown. Brown has since left the group and launched a successful solo career. Not shown is the newest edition to the group Johnny Gill. New Edition, Guy

What follows are other convention highlights.

fight ends in death PITTSBURGH (UPI) -

IT WASN'T LOVE that promoted the fight between the pop

tween crews of pop bands New Edition and Guy that led to a shooting death caused tour sponsor Anheuser-Busch Inc. to yank both bands off national concert tours, company officials announced July 11.

A production manager New Edition, in apparent play before Senate retaliation for being beaten b a rival road crew, stalked the group Guy's security chief and shot him to death, police

The fight ended in the death of Anthony Bee, 32, of New York, security manager for Guy, Police Cmdr. Ronald

New Edition production manager Ronald Byrd, 30, of Buffalo, N.Y. was charged with criminal homicide and will face a July 19 coroner's inquest, detectives said

Witnesses told police Byrd chased Bee from the Civic Arena to the nearby Pittsburgh Hyatt Hotel Sunday, snooting him twice outside the Anheuser-Busch decided to drop New Edition and Guy from its "Superfest" and "Budweiser Presents" tours. said company spokesman Tom Pagano. Anheuser-Busch is based in St. Louis.

"We are shocked and dismayed over this unforeseen incident that reportedly resulted from a private dispute between members of two band crews," Mr. Pagano said. "We have eliminated both Guy and New Edition from our talent pool for the remaining Superfest and

(Continued on Page A2)

Wife of new NBA owner is Baltimorean

By Frances M. Draper The wife of new Denver

Nuggets owner, Bertram Lee, has close ties to Charm City. Mrs. William Murphy, Sr. and a member of Newspapers' board of directors, grew up in the Cherry Hill section of Baltimore.

High School, Mrs. Lee was College in 1976. She is the former chief of staff for Daniels, has withdrawn his California Assembly Speaker Willie Brown and worked as a legislative assistant for Con-

> Mrs. Lee's parents and (Continued on Page A2)

NEW OWNERS — Chicago Businessmen Bertram Lee (L) and Peter C.B. Bynoe are introduced as the new owners of the Denver Nuggets by Pete Babcock, Nuggets general manager.