Third World

THIRD WORLD

"Serious Business" (Mercury)

R&B-reggae hit "Now That We've Found Love" ten years ago returns with an upbeat new LP, their first for Mercury.

The current Third World lineup: William "Bunny Rugs" Clarke (vocals), Michael "Ibo" Cooper (keyboards), Stephen "Cat" The band that brought us the Coore (guitar), Richard Daly a couple of "roots"-oriented LP's, the band hit it big with their 1978 album "Journey To Addis," and a hit single, an uptempo reggae version of The O'Jays' "Now That We've Found Love."

In the early 1980's, they hit the charts with such singles as "Dancing On The Floor" and "Try Jah

The group's latest is a slick, commercial effort that will satisfy many a Third World fan. But those reggae lovers who feel that Third World is not "roots" enough may be a tad disappointed, for Third World continues to produce the same type of mass-appeal formula music they've done on their last four albums or so.

Stetasonic's Daddy-O does the rap on the new album's first single, "Forbidden Love." The group's cover of the Holland-Same Old Song," is a rather lackluster re-working of the old Four Tops hit. Their cover of "Keep Your Head To The Sky" is more interesting and worth a listen from Earth, Wind And Fire

Other cuts: "Reggae Ambassador," "Take This Song," "Love Will Always Be There," "Serious Business."

Line label.

In 1971, Al Green had his first gold record and major pop hit, "Tired Of Being Alone." Other top 10 hits followed, including "Let's Stay Together," "I'm Still In Love With You" and my favorite, "Look What You Done For Me."

In October 1974, Green joined the ministry, purchased a church building in Memphis, and was ordained pastor of the Full Gospel Tabernacle. In the early 80's, he recorded such gospel albums as "Lord Will Make A Way" and "He Is The Light."

"I Get Joy," his latest LP, finds Al in top form with such enjoyable, well-written songs as "You're Everything To Me" and "All My Praise." Ballad lovers should check out "The End Is Near" and "Mighty Cloud Of Joy."

"As Long As We're Together" places Al's soulful voice in a more contemporary, hip-hoppish instrumental setting, and is a nice change of pace.

"I Get Joy" is a solid effort I can heartily recommend to Al Green

Other cuts: "Praise Him," "Blessed," "Tryin' To Do The Best
