THE ECUMENICAL INSTITUTE ST. MARY'S SEMINARY & UNIVERSITY

We offer accredited M.A. level evening courses in theology for women and men of all faith traditions. Some of the classes beginning Sept. 6th:

> Jesus in the Synoptic Tradition Leaders of the Black Church Perspectives in Black Theology Moral Decision Making Ethics in the New Testment Curriculum for Religious Education Urban Ministries

For a free brochure with complete course listings, call 301-323-1463 or write to 5400 Roland Ave., Baltimore, MD 21210.

Supplement to the Baltimore AFRO-AMERICAN

BALTIMORE AFRO-AMERICAN 628 N. Eutaw Street Baltimore, MD 21201 (301) 723-8200 irculation audited by the Audit Bureau of Circulation (ABC) John J. Oliver, Jr. Chairman of the Board/Publisher Frances M. Draper

Charles K. Taylor General Manager Thomas K. Goins-irector of Marketing Robert W. Matthews Andre R. Draper Director of Circulation Marsha S. White Baltimore Advertising Manager

Baltimore County Community Colleges.

Because Your Future

Hangs In The Balance.

Investigative grant awarded Coppin

Coppin State College was the recent recipient of an Investigative Summer Grant from the National Park Service. Pictured during the ceremony are (left to right) Dr. Carlton Molette, vice president for academic affairs at Coppin, Richard Stanton, superintendent of the C&O Canal for the Park Service, Dr. Cynthia Neverdon-Morton, project coordinator, Dr. Calvin W. Burnett, president of the college and Dr. Mary Wanza, director of the library.

Coppin State College has July 1 through Aug. 11, 1989. received an Investigative The objectives of the in-Valley. The grant period is Summer Grant from the vestigation are to review the National Park Service for the holdings of the C&O Canal purpose of Infusing the Archives. To collect data African-American Presence relating to the African into The Interpretation of the American' involvement with C&O Canal/Potomac River the C&O Canal.

To identify and interview selected African Americans who were involved with the C&O Canal. To review C&O literature, photographs, and artifacts at selected resource centers.

To develope an annotated listing of the relevant printed photographs, persons, and sites. To prepare a five year work plan which will facilitate the infusing of the African American presence into the interpretation of the C&O

Harford offers Saturday business course will be offered on Saturdays during the upcoming Fall's 16-week semester on Harford Community College's Bel Air from 9 a.m. to 11:40 a.m., campus. The innovative followed by Principles of scheduling format allows Management, from 12 noon to students with hectic schedules 2:40 p.m.

during the work week to register for two three-credit

Accounting 101 is offered

The Degree of Difference: Loyola College IN MARYLAND

Graduate Programs Include:

Education omputer/Engineering Science Modern Studies Pastoral Counseling

Speech-Language Pathology/Audiology Executive MBA Fellows MBA M.S. in Finance

Professional Development Programs

Loyola College in Maryland 4501 North Charles Street Baltimore, MD 21210-2699

For more information, call (301)532-5020.

But at the Baltimore County Con academic guidance and support...flex-County Community Colleges. Because all of your worries about returning to college really don't carry much weight anymore.

weighing on your mind. Like the personal challenge . time restraints ... and high costs

If you're thinking about going to

bably a lot of things

ESSEX 522-1263

college, there are pro-

DUNDALK 282-6700

CATONSVILLE 455-4555

Catonsville Community College Dundalk Community College EEESSEX COMMUNITY COLLEGE

Careers in communications:

The doors are open!

and editors -13 percent-of recent American Society of editors are minorities. the city's four major dailies, Newspaper Editor's survey. newspaper.

But things have not always strong efforts to recruit been that way. The paper had qualified minority editorial only two black reporters and personnel. no editors on an editorial staff But most authorities admit and other major papers for of 600 people in 1967.

soon to encompass a quarter editors say that the abroad or placement on our of New York City's population newspaper industry is no —was largely absent from the where near reaching the goal paper's pages.

In the newsroom, it was not Newspaper Editors in the late uncommon to hear minorities 1970's, have newsrooms fully openly described by such derisive terms as "bongos," "street walkers" or "banjos."

tional Advisory Commission small number of employment report, the newspaper in-requests from minorities that dustry has on the surface, at it is practically impossible to least, witnessed somewhat of fully integrate their staffs. a turnaround.

Under pressures from

PROGRAM ASSISTANT

the business and from the resources and more varied There is perhaps no clearer growing demographic weight reporting environments indice of the state of of blacks, and from Hispanics somewhat better in this minorities in the newspaper and Asians crowding into the regard. industry than the history of nation's cities, the number of The Washington Post, the blacks at New York City's minority reporters and Baltimore Sun, the New York Daily News over the past 20 editors employed at daily Times and other papers of newspapers has grown to 7 similar caliber generally The paper has the highest percent of their editorial per- have staffs where 10-15 perpercentage of black reporters sonnel, according to the most cent of their reporters and claim that they are making ties.

that progress has been minorities, but we can offer agonizingly slow. A number of such inducements as travel set by the National Society of integrated by the year 2000.

One of the most common complaints voiced by editors In the 20 years since the Na- is that they receive such a

Conditions at the elite, top 10 newspapers with their blacks already employed in higher salaries, greater

William Adler, the corand devotes enough of its Though this is a far cry porate manager of the New political analysis section to from the 20 percent of the York Times, where the the black and Hispanic com- total population that these editorial staff is 11 percent munities, that one prominent groups constitute, editors and black, says that his paper black state legislator claims personnel directors at a does not have a problem that it is the city's best black number of daily newspapers recruiting qualified minori-

> "We have to compete with the major television networks

Excerpted from The Crisis June/July, 1989 by David

The black press has provided careers for minority journalists for over 100 years, and still provides a venue for black journalists. The world is open now, but the satisfaction of a black writer plying his skill at a black publication provides a complete sense of fulfillment.

COMMITTED EXCELLENCE

- Four-year undergraduate and graduate, liberal arts and sciences and professional
- Enrollment of over 4,000
- 17 to 1 student/faculty ratio
- Affordable costs; scholarships and financial aid available
- Beautiful mountain setting in western Maryland
- 17 varsity sports competing in NCAA Division III

For more information, call or write: Office of Admissions Frostburg State University Frostburg, Maryland 21532-1099 (301) 689-4201 In Maryland, call toll-free: 1-800-553-FSU-1 programs for children, and outreach to local high

CONTRACT TRAINING LIAISON

has the following positions open:

This position is responsible for establishing and coordinating contractual relationship with business and industry for training, research and consulting; and for planning and administering on-campus continuing professional education programs. Bachelor's degree required. Professional level work-experience in higher education (preferably continuing education) required;

The UMBC

Office of Continuing Education

A full-time contractual position is available in the Office of Continuing Education. Start due: September 15.

Salary Range: low to mid-twenties. Bachelor's degree required. Experience in education and administration preferred. Duties include coordinating summer grant programs, academic day camps, Saturday academic

Letters of application and resumes for both positions should be sent by August 11, 1989 to: Office of Continuing Education, UMBC, Baltimore, MD 21228. UMBC is an AA/EOE.

Salary; mid-twenties.