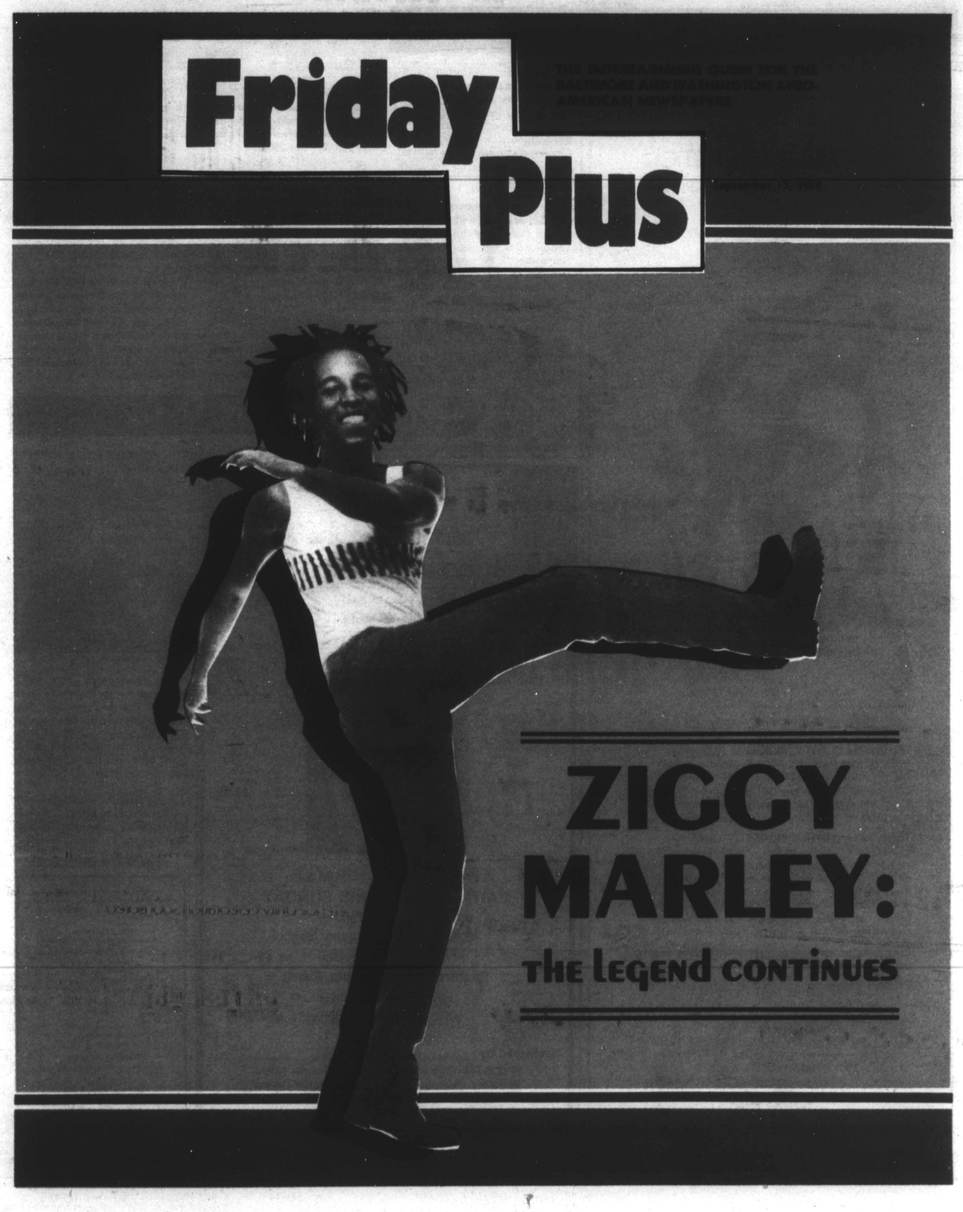
25 Years Ago Civil Rights for All Americans Became Law

On July 2, 1964 President Lyndon B. Johnson signed into law these simple words to enforce the Civil Rights Act:

An Act

To enforce the constitutional right to vote, to confer jurisdiction upon the district courts of the United States to provide injunctive relief against discrimination in public accommodations, to authorize the Attorney General to institute suits to protect constitutional rights in public facilities and public education, to extend the Commission on Civil Rights, to prevent discrimination in federally assisted programs, to establish a Commission on Equal Employment Opportunity, and for other purposes.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that this Act may be cited as the "Civil Rights Act of 1964".

On this 25th Anniversary, let us all strive to reaffirm the spirit and the letter of the Act.


PHILIP MORRIS U.S.A.
