

granted by the Orphans Court of Frederick County to John Shields the remaining Executor that said John Shields as Executor as aforesaid in furtherance of the Devises, and purposes of the said Testator, afterwards sold, and conveyed a part of said Real Estate, to one of his brothers to wit: William Shields by deed recorded in Liber W R. N<sup>o</sup> 21 fol 94th one of the Land Records of said County, a Copy whereof is herewith exhibited, marked Exhibit B and took again from said William Shields a Deed to himself, in fee Simple of the same parcel of Land as by reference to the same Record in Liber W R N<sup>o</sup> 21 fol 94th and a Copy whereof marked exhibit D is herewith filed will appear that this sale, and conveyance was made solely & exclusively to enable the said John as Executor as aforesaid the more easily and readily to effectuate a sale & removal, according to the provisions of said will, and that the said tract & parcel of Land so conveyed, and reconveyed, remained and was vested in him in fee Simple, charged & burdened, and subject to all & every of the Trusts, and Devises in favor of the several Children of the said William de<sup>d</sup> in said will, Your orators further charge, that the said William Shields de<sup>d</sup> left at the time of his Decease, the following Children, and heirs at Law, & Devises, to wit: John Shields being said Executor who married removed to the State of Tennessee & there deceased in the year 1833, leaving as his Children, and heirs at Law certain parties hereinafter named, James Shields also de<sup>d</sup> and leaving Children hereinafter named, also Barrner Shields de<sup>d</sup> leaving Children hereinafter named, also William Shields de<sup>d</sup> leaving Children hereinafter named, also Ebenezer Shields, since de<sup>d</sup> leaving Children & Devises hereinafter named, also Samuel Shields, Henry Shields, David Shields Margaret Shields, afterwards married to one Mr Evans, also Agnes Shields, who intermarried with one Woods, and Mary Shields afterwards married with one William Blair, that of the aforesaid eleven Children, and Devises of said William Shields, his son John Shields, at his Decease as hereinafter stated, left the following named Children, and heirs at Law, to wit: Nancy, who afterwards intermarried with one B B & since de<sup>d</sup> without issue, or any known Devises William Shields James M Shields, Henry D Shields John S Shields Margaret Shields, intermarried with one John Stuart Jane Shields intermarried with one George Stuart of Virginia, and she the said Jane has since de<sup>d</sup> leaving the following named parties as her Children, & heirs at Law to wit, James N Stuart David M Stuart George Stuart, John Stuart & Mary S Stuart now married to one Mr Perkins said John left also a daughter named Polly, who intermarried with one J A Howard of Indiana, and left Children, all of whom are unknown, & whether they be now alive or dead is unknown and if alive, are not residents of the State of Maryland - said John Shields left also Kitty a daughter now intermarried -