The Complainants move and pray the Court to allow them to amend their foregoing Bill by correcting a clerical Error therein as follows, the Bill avers, that a certain Jacob Haugh, late of Frederick County dec'd, in diverse manners was indebted to your Complainants, Melham Roberts, and John Haugh, in the sum of one thousand Dollars - to John Haugh three Hundred Dollars &c &c In place of the name John Haugh as first above mentioned it should have been written John Roberts, and they pray that the bill may stand corrected, and that this may be had as and for such amendment.

August 24 1852
 Let the amendment be allowed & had in manner & form as prayed
