

her Nephew, and only heir at Law

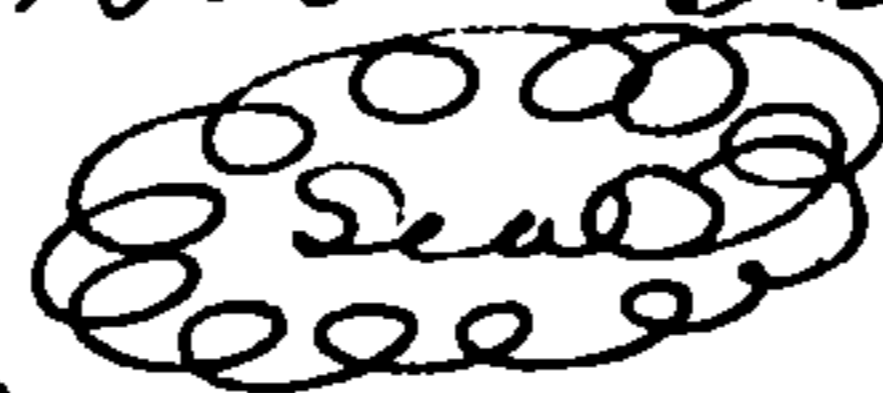

In the Fifth Inty he answers That he knows the two parcels of Land in the Petition mentioned That they be adjoining each other and form one parcel, that in the opinion of deponent, it would be for the Interest & advantage of the said Infant John Adams, that the same should be sold his reasons for so thinking are that the property is going down is much out of repair That it would take as much as the rent to keep it in repair That a sale of the property, and the money put at Interest would yield more, and the funds be freed from the expense of repairs There being no other Testimony, the Commission was here closed and is Respectfully returned
