

To the fifth Interrogatory The lands of which John Gollinger died seized are not susceptible of division among his said children without loss as it would the same to be cut up into too small parcels for a advantageous cultivation and all the parts but one would be without any improvements In my opinion the interest of all the parties infants as well as adults requires that said land should be sold by the sixth Interrogatory I look at the paper now shown me marked Exhibit No 2 I am one of the subscribing witnesses thereto & am all the parties sign it they are the same parties who are named as complainants and defendants in this suit a better sale of said land could not be made at public sale nor as good a one The said paper was signed for the purposes set forth in said paper To the seventh Int. I know nothing further The Solicitor for the complainants filed with me the papers herewith returned marked Exhibits No 1 and 2 and 3. There being no further evidence I closed the said commission and herewith return the same closed under my hand and seal this 7th day of March 1858
