The answer of Abraham Myers of Frederick County State of Maryland to the bill of Complaint of William H. Wagner filed in the Circuit Court for Frederick County as a Court of Equity against himself and others.

This defendant for answer to the said bill of Complaint answers and says that he admits that the claim of the complainant is correct as stated in said bill. And this defendant further answers and says that the said John Legoe in his time executed the mortgage mentioned in said bill to your respondent to secure the payment of the sum of seven hundred dollars together with the interest due thereon and that the said sum of seven hundred dollars together with the interest from the fifth day of April in the year eighteen hundred and sixty four is still due and unpaid to your respondent. And your respondent further admits all the allegations charged in said bill to be true and agrees that a decree may be passed for the sale of the real estate for the purposes stated in said bill.
