ratification of the sale, and the said H. R. Harris had in hand $16,786.43 which he desired to pay upon said property, and which was more than one third of the purchase money as specified for the first payment by the decree, and your petitioner feeling satisfied it would be greatly to the interest of all the parties concerned, as well as an accommodation to said H. R. Harris to receive said money, he did receive the same and now prays your Honor to direct the Auditor to state an account therein distributing said
