The Report of Charles W. Ross Trustee appointed by the court in this cause, to make sale of certain real estate therein mentioned shows that after giving bond with security for the faithful discharge of his trust as required by said decree, giving notice of the time, place, manner and terms of sale by advertisement in the "Republican Citizen" a newspaper printed at Frederick for more than three successive weeks before the day of sale and by handbills extensively circulated throughout said County of Frederick, he did pursuant to said notice attend at the "Taylor House" in the town of Emmittsburg on Saturday the 31st day of March 1866 at ten o'clock A.M. and there and there proceeded to sell said real estate, ~
Your Trustee then offered at public sale to the highest bidder. The same sitsuate on the road from Emmittsburg to Gettysburg in the County of Frederick State of Maryland about one mile and a half from the town of Emmittsburg containing one hundred and three acres of land more or less, and particularly described in the advertisement annexed to the memorandum of sale and sold the same to Sarah Hyde and Elbridge F. Hise, at and for the sum of Eighteen dollars per acre and upon the terms as prescribed by the decree, they being then and there the highest and best bidders therefor. ~ Your Trustee further reports that the said Hyde and Hise have complied with the terms of sale, and that the gross amount of sale is $1854. ~
