

offered for sale the farm of said deceased called Springfield divided into three farms according to the advertisement. For No 1 they received a bid of $22<sup>50</sup>/<sub>100</sub> per acre for No 2 twenty six dollars per acre and for No 3 thirty three dollars per acre but deeming these bids wholly inadequate to the value of the land they adjourned the sale thereof. In the next place they offered for sale the Reviston Mills and received therefor a bid of three thousand dollars but deeming this wholly inadequate to the value of said Mills they adjourned the sale thereof. In the next place your trustees offered for sale the tract of Mountain land and road lot No 3 but received no bids therefor they then offered Road lot No 10 and received therefor a bid of $21<sup>50</sup>/<sub>100</sub> per acre but deeming this wholly inadequate to its value adjourned the sale thereof. They then offered for sale the Marzen House in Prichard and received therefor a bid of $8,600.00 but deeming this wholly inadequate to the value thereof they adjourned the sale thereof.
