

Your complainants demand that the money due on the notes assigned to them and a bill in the same name and they hold out that the whole amount with interest for the note is still due and a bill in the same name and they was bona fide assigned, and they say that the bill was assigned from the said Court and before and before the assignment to said "Healey" and before the since the said assignment. It is the consideration thereof and to the end that the said John W. House and John W.
 Robt may answer the several matters a bill in the stated and that the premises a bill in the same name necessary to pay the same of your bill in the same name which as aforesaid may be and also that the payments may have all such other and that the in the premises as the interest and bill in the same name may require. May it please your Honor to grant to your complainants writ of relief against the said John W. House and John W. Robt and that the Bill of the City of Baltimore immediately there to offer in this Court at some certain date to be specified in to answer the premises and that cause if a bill in the any decree should not pass a prayer and that complainants will ever pray
