

may deem most to the advantage of all parties interested therein, and ascertain the value of each part thereof, subject to any incumbrances thereon, having regard as aforesaid to quality and quantity. — And if in their opinion the said real estate will not admit of division, without loss or injury to the parties, then that they make return of their judgment, and the reasons upon which the same was formed, with the real value of said real estate subject to any incumbrances thereon, And that the said Commissioners lay off the dower of Sarah Sigler, the widow of the said Henry Sigler deceased, in the said real estate, before they proceed to divide or value the same, and that the said Commissioners make out or cause to be made a plat and certificate of the said real estate, and of the divisions thereof with the beginning and courses, and an accurate description of the said real estate and the several parts thereof, and to the said Commission there shall be annexed the oath of Office. —
 Filed November 1st 1867. — M. Nelson

Commissioner

Maryland Job:

The State of Maryland, Do Samuel Ahalt, Daniel Young, Joshua Ahalt, David White and Joshua Rudy of Frederick County, kneeling, —
 Know ye, that we have, pursuant to an order of the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting as a Court of Equity, passed on the first day of November A.D. 1867, in a cause therein between Lewis Mc Bride and wife, John W. Jennings & wife Complainants, and Samuel Sigler and wife, George Sigler and wife and others Defendants, Authorized and empowered you, or a majority of you (having first taken the oath hereunto annexed, and given notice according to the forty seventh Article of the Maryland Code of Public General Laws) to enter upon, walk over, survey, adjudge and determine, whether the real estate whereof Henry Sigler late of Frederick County deceased, died seized, will admit of being divided without loss or injury to all the parties entitled, and to ascertain the value of the said real estate, subject to all incumbrances, if any thereon, and to divide the same into nine equal parts, having regard to quantity and quality, if in your opinion the said real estate be susceptible of such division, with advantage to all the parties interested therein, and to allot one of such divisions to each of the heirs at law of the said Henry Sigler deceased, And if in your opinion the said real estate be <sup>not</sup> susceptible of such division with advantage to all the parties interested therein, then that you proceed to divide the same into such lesser number of parts as you may deem most to the advantage of all parties interested therein, and ascertain the value of each part thereof subject to any incumbrances thereon, having regard as aforesaid, to quality and quantity. And if in your opinion the said real estate will not admit of division without loss or injury to the parties, then that you make return of your judgment, and the reasons upon which the same was formed, with the real value of said real estate, subject to any incumbrances thereon as aforesaid. And you or a majority of you, are authorized and empowered to lay off the dower of Sarah Sigler the widow of the said Henry Sigler deceased in the said real estate, before you proceed to divide or value the same. — And if you or a majority of you shall decide that the said real estate is susceptible of division (after laying off the widow's dower) you shall make out or cause to be made out a plat and certificate of the said real estate, and of the division thereof, with the beginning and courses, and an accurate description of the said estate, and of the several parts thereof, with the real value of each part. — And you or a majority of you, are hereby authorized and empowered to examine and take the deposition of any witness, relating to the matter in question, as you may think proper, all of which proceedings together with the plats, descriptions, and documentary or other evidence made produced or taken by you, shall be returned with this commission, and all other proceedings to our Circuit Court sitting as a Court of Equity without delay. —

Return of Commission