N^o 3353 Equity ~
In the Circuit Court for Frederick County in Equity ~ I Daniel Sigler of Frederick County State of Maryland, third son, and one of the heirs at law of Henry Sigler, late of Frederick County deceased - do hereby elect to take the Home Farm of said deceased, described and set forth in the plat returned in said cause, at the sum of sixty five Dollars per acre, subject to the incumbrance of the widow's dower right, being the valuation thereof made by the Commissioners appointed in this cause.
And Samuel Sigler the eldest, and George Sigler the next eldest son, having renounced their right to elect to take the same. ~

And I do hereby elect to take the Mountain lot mentioned in said plat, - at fifty dollars per acre, there being no incumbrance on said Mountain lot, and none of said Mountain lot being assigned as part of the widows dower - The valuation made thereof by the Commissioners. The above mentioned Samuel Sigler and George Sigler having renounced their right to elect to take this lot also. And I am willing to make such payments as the Court, on the ratification of the Commissioner's report shall order and decree.
