

Trustee as aforesaid, for the sum of five thousand dollars. And that the said Benjamin Todd, in his life time paid all of the aforesaid purchase money, except the sum of about Seventeen hundred dollars aforesaid. ~

And your Orators and Oratrices are advised that they will be entitled to have a conveyance of the aforesaid farm, upon payment of the balance of the purchase money therefor, and to have the same sold for the purpose of distribution, if it cannot advantageously be divided between them. ~

N^o. 6. ~ A house and lot in Parisville, Carroll County, on the Baltimore and Frederick turnpike road, being the same heretofore conveyed, to Benjamin Todd by deed of conveyance, from John Cain and wife, a copy of which deed of conveyance is herewith filed and marked, "Exhibit J. C. & W." to which reference is hereby made. ~

N^o. 7. ~ A tract of land in Howard County, containing some thirty five acres of land more or less, comprising parts of two original tracts or parcels of land, named respectively, "Trouble for Nothing" and "Hampton Continued" which tract of land, was heretofore conveyed to the said Benjamin Todd, by deed of conveyance from William Hurdles and wife, a copy of which deed is herewith Exhibited and filed, marked "Exhibit W. R. & W." ~

N^o. 8. ~ Four fifths interest, in one hundred and forty acres of land more or less, in Howard County, being the interest of Leven Hood, James Hood, Samuel J. Hood, and Joshua Todd Jr., which was conveyed to the said Benjamin Todd by deeds of conveyance from the said Samuel J. Hood, Leven Hood and Betty Hood his wife, James Hood and Caroline Hood his wife and Joshua Todd, Copies of which deeds of conveyance are herewith filed and Exhibited, marked "Exhibit H. No. 1," and "Exhibit H. No. 2." ~

And your Orators and Oratrices show unto your Honorable Court here, that at the time of the death of the said Benjamin Todd, Leven Hood of Howard County, owned one undivided fifth part of the said tract of land in tenent in common, with the said Benjamin Todd, and that he now owns the same interest in said lands as tenent in common with the heirs at law of the said Benjamin Todd - having purchased the interest of Cecelia Hood who married Mr. Jackson state of Missouri ~ The father and Mother of the said Madolpha Le Jackson, being both dead - by deed of conveyance, a copy of which is herewith filed and Exhibited for Reference, marked "Exhibit E. L. J." ~

N^o. 9. A Lot of about two acres of land situate in Carroll County, being a part of a tract known as Parr's Ridge heretofore conveyed to Benjamin Todd by George Haseltine - located at the crossing of the the old track of the Baltimore and Ohio Rail Road, with the Frederick and Baltimore Turnpike road at Parisville. ~

And being so seized and possessed of the several parcels and tracts of land and Real Estate as aforesaid, the said Benjamin Todd, sometime in the Month of December in the year 1860. departed this life intestate leaving no lawful children, but leaving a Widow, Ruth Todd, who was his lawful wife, and who has, since the death of the said Benjamin Todd, intermarried with one Samuel C. Brown, and who is entitled to her dower right in and to the Real Estate before mentioned, and leaving the following Brothers and sisters, and their descendants his heirs at law, to wit: Samuel Todd, Charles H. Todd, and Rachel B. Todd, his brothers, Charles Brongle, Rachel Brongle, Mary Brongle