(vs)
Stancy Allen et al

No. 3841 Equity
in the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity
Feb Term 1874

To the Honourable the Judges of the Circuit Court for Frederick County sitting in Equity.

The Petition of John D. Allen of Frederick County humbly shews to your Honors that since the passage of the decree in this cause Stancy Allen one of the Defendants therein filed her Petition asking your Honors to allow a certain claim of hers out of the proceeds of the Real Estate mentioned in this cause and your Honors thereupon passed an order that said claim should be allowed said Stancy Allen as prayed in her said Petition unless same to the contrary be shown on or before a certain day named in said order that since the passage of said Order that the said Stancy Allen has departed this life on the 24th day of October 1873 and that her interest in the said Real Estate and the said claim is ordered to be allowed to her as aforesaid devolved upon your Petitioner and the other parties to this cause all of whom are her children and heirs at Law. Your Petitioner therefore prays your Honors to pass an order directing said cause to proceed as if the death of any of the parties to this cause had not occurred. And as in duty bound
