Mr H Baker

Sir, I have wrote to Mr Jos Lowe several times to pay his interest as it has been due ever since May last he dont seem to pay any attention to my writing now I say to if the inter-est is not paid the next few days I will have to ask of you the prin- cipal with the interest and you will find in Mr Ross hands for collection, please attend to this Note as you have a Mortgage on the Mill and you can make the money out of the property and will not be any trouble to either of us, this is my reason why I write to you and believe that you will attend to it.

Yours Truly
