Petition

Ephraim Albaugh
vs
James H. Patton & Wife

No. 3321 Equity.
In Circuit Court for Frederick County &c.
To the Honourable Madam Helen Judge.

The Petition of M. P. Galligher respectfully shows that during the February Term 1867 of your Honourable Court he entered his appearance as Solicitor for Defendants in the above cause and he further shows that on the 2nd day of July 1867 your Honors passed an "interlocutory decree" against the Defendants for failure to answer the Bill of Complaint within the time limited by the rules of your Honourable Court, and your Petitioner charges that the Defendants have been taken by surprise by the entry of such interlocutory decree inasmuch as there existed between your Petitioner and the Solicitor for the Complainant an understanding that in the said cause no further proceedings would be taken or ordered or decree demanded and obtained before September 1867, wherefore your Petitioner prays your Honor that said interlocutory decree and the proceedings thereon may be rescinded and annulled and that a reasonable time be fixed by your Honor in which to file the answer of the Defendants. And as in duty bound your Petitioner will ever pray and so forth
