

from, as I know of, by his family, or by the community. I don't know if he is living or dead; if living he is an adult, and if dead, his heirs are Catharine Honck, adult, his wife, and three children, namely: Mary G. Honck, William E. H. Honck and Joseph R. J. Honck, all infants under the age of twenty one years, and all residing in Frederick County, Maryland.

7th Int. She had some little personal property, It was not sufficient to pay her debts. The personal property was worth a little over one hundred dollars ($100.) The real estate situate in Frederick County, Md, worth from 600⁰⁰ to 800⁰⁰.

Joseph Hopp, a witness of lawful age produced upon the part of the Complainant, being duly sworn & examined to Interrogatories filed with the Commission by the Complainant and herewith returned deposes and says, to the 1st Int: I know all of the parties, and have known them for some years

2^d Int: I was. She died in Frederick County, Md, in September A.D. 1873.

3^d Int: I know nothing about the account, but I do know that Dr. James M. Eichelberger attended her for many years. I don't know whether she ever paid the Doctor or not

4th Int: She was. I look at "Exhibit No. 1," now here shown me, said Exhibit contains a correct description of the real estate of which the said Mary M. Honck died seized & possessed. It is all situated in Frederick County, Md, except about one acre, which is situated in Pennsylvania

5th Int: She did not

6th Mary M. Honck was married twice. Her first husband's name was _____ Myers and her last _____ Honck. She left the following children surviving her, namely; A son Vincent Myers, adult, unmarried, and living in Frederick County, Md. - A son Casper Myers, adult and married, whose wife's name is Ann S. Myers, and both reside in Adams County, Penna.; - A son William H. Honck, adult, and married, whose wife's name is Leah Honck, and both reside in Frederick County, Md.; - A daughter Barbara Honck, adult and residing in Frederick County, Md.; - A daughter Mary E. Myers, who left her home 10 or 12 years ago, and has never been heard from, or of, by her family, or by the community. I don't know if she is living, or dead, or whether she is married or unmarried, I don't know who her heirs are, or living. She is an adult. A son Joseph H. Honck, who left her home 13, or 14 years ago, and has since never been heard of, or from by his family, or by the community, as I know of, I don't know whether he is living, or dead. If living he is an adult, and if dead, his heirs are Catharine Honck, and three children, namely; Mary G. Honck, William E. H. Honck and Joseph R. J. Honck, who are infants under the age of twenty one years and all reside in Frederick County, Maryland.