

same to Philip Porten at and for the sum of Fifteen Dollars, he being then and then the highest bidder therefor, selling the same on the terms specified in said decree, and the said purchaser paid to your trustees the sum of Five dollars, the cash payment on the same. Your trustees then offered at public sale ten lots in the town of Haverton as laid out by the Haverton Manufacturing Company, but failed to receive any adequate bid for the same and withdrew the same. Subsequently your trustees having again given notice of the time, place, manner and terms of sale by advertisements in "The Valley Register," "The Maryland Union" and "The Republican Citizen," three newspapers printed in Frederick County, for more than three successive weeks before the day of sale, and also by handbills circulated in said County, did pursuant to said notice attend at "The City Hotel," in Frederick City, on Saturday the sixth day of October A.D. 1877, about 11 o'clock A.M. and then and there proceeded to sell a portion of said real estate as follows. Your trustees offered at public sale to the highest bidder a tract of One hundred and five and one-half acres of land, more or less, lying on the south side of the Ridge Road, leading from Jefferson to Peterwille, including the buildings and being the tract on which the late Hezekiah Boteler resided at the time of his death, including also half interest in wheat growing upon the same, and sold the same to Mary A. Luckett, she being then and there the highest bidder therefor, at and for the sum of Three thousand, nine hundred and three dollars, and fifty cents, on the terms specified in said decree, and took her within acknowledgment of purchase which is herewith filed as part of this Report marked "Exhibit M. A. S. to Trustees Report." Your trustees then offered at public sale to the highest bidder the tract of forty nine acres, two rods and thirty one perches of land more or less, formerly owned by Robert H. Boteler, and sold the same to Dr. Edward L. Boteler, he being then and there the highest bidder at and for the sum of One thousand and Eighteen dollars and seventy two cents, and took his within acknowledgment of purchase herewith filed as part of this Report, marked "Exhibit C. L. B. to Trustees Report." Your trustees then offered at public sale to the highest bidder ten lots in Haverton as laid out by the Haverton Manufacturing Company and sold the same to C. H. Hill, he being then and there the highest bidder therefor, at and for the sum of Fifty dollars for all of them, on the terms specified in said decree, and took his within acknowledgment of purchase herewith filed as part of this Report marked "Exhibit C. H. H. to Trustees Report." The gross amount of sales herein reported is Four thousand, nine hundred and seventy seven dollars and twenty two cents. All of which is respectfully submitted
