State of Maryland, Frederick County, to wit:
On the 24th day of May, 1864, came Daniel Danner, Clayton W.
Doney, William H. Brightwell, subscribing witnesses to the foregoing last will and testament of David Justis, late of Frederick County, deceased, and made oath on the Holy Evangel of Almighty God that they did see David Justis the Testator therein named, sign and seal this Will, that they heard him publish for annex and declare the same to be his last will and testament, that at the time of his so doing he was to the best of their apprehension of sound and disposing mind, memory and understanding, and that they respectfully subscribed their names as witnesses to said will, in the presence, and at the request of the Testator, and that they did also see the other subscribing witness sign their names as witness to said will at the request of the Testator in his presence and all in the presence of each other.
