

and directly after dinner we all went in the room Basil, Uncle Dawson, myself and I was sitting at the head of the bed and Uncle Dawson was sitting about the middle of the bed between Basil and myself and Uncle Tom said Dawson I got a letter from "the Parreid". John Wood will buy some of that land and I want you to lay it off in lots, and will bring Fifty Dollars (50$) an acre - You want a lot, and Mills wants a lot, and there's a Judgment due in July, and he went to court, the month and the first court, then and Basil stepped up to him & said Uncle Tom (you didn't get a letter I brought the news to you he says "Oh, I thought I heard it" and then Uncle Dawson replied "I will object to all deeds, sales, or contracts of any kind I don't consider him competent, he's failing, fast, I find him failing very fast, he gets wrong and I have to put him straight, and its all right," and I came home on Saturday, and that's all that happened.
