

Answer: He wanted to mortgage and of course I gave it to him I lived in the house with Daniel. The mortgage was for the costs of the court in number 4037 Equity asked me to give him the mortgage and he would raise the money to pay the costs, but he failed to get it all.

5th Interrogatory: How much was the mortgage to be for?

Answer: Four hundred Dollars ($400-) Mr Braugh told me that covered all the costs.

6th Interrogatory: Did you at any time execute a mortgage to Alexander Braugh? If yes, for how much?

Answer: yes Sir did for one hundred and seventy two Dollars ($172.)

7th Interrogatory: (Excepted to)

Was that mortgage executed before or after the one you gave to Daniel?

Answer: Both were executed at one time.

8th Interrogatory: why was that mortgage given?

Answer: For money we borrowed to fill up the other mortgage

9th Interrogatory: What do you mean by filling up the other mortgage?

Answer: Well the loaned got the full money four hundred Dollars ($400-) so they had to borrow it.

10th Interrogatory: Did Daniel at the time you executed the mortgage or before that represent to you what the amount of costs were? If yes state what representations he made?

Answer: He told me it was four hundred dollars ($400-) and Mr Francis Braugh said so too and he read it as such.

11th Interrogatory: Was there anything said at that time or at any other time about Daniel getting or changing the difference between $287.50 and $400- the amount of the mortgage for his trouble in the case?

Answer: There was nothing said ever about it.

12th Interrogatory: Did you at any time promise to pay him that amount for his trouble?

Answer: No Sir. I never did promise to pay him he never asked it.

13th Interrogatory (Excepted to)

Was Daniel at the time indebted to you? If yes how much? or since any?

Answer: yes Sir he was indebted to me. I cut him up exactly I loaned him fifty dollars ($50) and paid fifty dollars ($50) to his sister for him and paid Andrew Black ($100) one hundred dollars for him he owed Black a note I paid Simon Le Simon a judgment of sixty Dollars & thirty five cents ($60.35) and one dollar &
