

wife mortgage including Brangle's v.

Answer: No Sir.

11th Interrogatory: State what constituted the consideration of the mortgage to your wife v.

Answer: Well there was $287.50 cash that I paid for costs in No 4037 Equity I paid to Brangle. The balance $112.50 was for my trouble and expenses in going to Littlestown and back and gaining the property back for her and attending to the business for her.

12th Interrogatory: Was Mr Brangle attending to the business in No 4037 Equity for your mother, and if so, did you pay him with your own money, the for v. If so how much v.

Answer: Yes Sir I paid him fifty Dollars ($50.).

13th Interrogatory: Have you paid other sums for your mother v.

Answer: I have furnished ^{her} with some money.

14th Interrogatory: How long was she at your house supported by you v.

Answer: Two years.

15th Interrogatory: Have you ever received any pay for v.

Answer: No Sir.

16th Interrogatory: When Mr Brangle read over the mortgage to your mother, did he tell her that it was in part for the cash you furnished to pay the costs and in part for your trouble and expenses v.

Answer: No Sir he did not.

17th Interrogatory: Did she make any objection to signing it as read v.

Answer: No Sir she did not.

18th Interrogatory: Did she know what it was given for v. If so how did she know it v.

Answer: Yes Sir she knew that I had paid the costs on the property, and said she would give me a mortgage. I told her afterwards that I had also included in it my trouble and expenses and she said nothing against it, she told me I should be paid for my trouble.

19th Interrogatory: Why was this mortgage given to your wife instead of to you v.

Answer: The reason why I assigned it to her was, I had a big house to rent in order to hold Mother's furniture with mine and I rented Mr Frank Schley's house and after I went into it it was a good deal out of repair and he promised to fix it for me and would do it and on the 15th of December I moved out, and he warranted me for the rent from that until Spring and I wouldn't pay it. And Mrs Good had a judgment against me and was ready to attach this money. This money and I had the mortgage drawn in my wife's name, I assigned to her this claim which is embraced in the mortgage.

20th Interrogatory: Did you have any conversation with or Thomas Devilbiss.
