

9th Interrogatory. State what terms are the most advantageous for the sale of such property. Answer. A time sale.

10th Interrogatory (Excepted to)

State whether or not any persons examined said Property before said Sale with reference to purchasing it, and whether they said anything about the Terms of Sale as advertised? If you, what did they say?

Answer.

There were several there looking at the Property. Well they looked round over the place and wanted to know the Terms of Sale, and I told them it was Cash. They said it didn't suit them; they could not buy on such terms as them.

11th Interrogatory.

Were there persons at said Sale, when it was made?

Answer.

No sir, they didn't come.

12th Interrogatory (Excepted to) Should said Property have brought more, in your judgment on a time sale, than for cash?

Answer Yes, sir, I think so.

To C, Interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Mortgagee & herewith returned, and said Jacob Stubaum deposed and says to the 1st C, Interrogatory: (Excepted to) Has not said Mortgage been due, and the Interest unpaid for several years?

Answer Well, there was a couple of years due on the Mortgage

2^d Interrogatory: (Excepted to)

Has not Mr. Hartwick demanded payment of the Mortgage and interest upon different occasions?

Answer Well he mentioned it a couple of times.

3^d C, Interrogatory (Excepted to)

Did he not want you to sell the Property yourself, and upon your own terms and pay the Mortgage?

Answer Well, he had talked about it. He wanted me to sell the Property. I told him, I could not sell it under those circumstances, He was always running the property down

4th C, Interrogatory (Excepted to)

Did you try to sell the Property yourself?

Answer Well I had tried to sell it at private sale, but over to public sale.

5th Interrogatory. Did Mr. Hartwick request you to offer the property at Public Sale?

Answer, I don't hardly recollect about that; he might have done it.

6th C, Interrogatory. (Excepted to)

What were the names of the parties who came to look at the property, before the Sale?

Answer, I can't tell you the names now, I forgot that.