

and to be secured to the satisfaction of the Justice

Your Justice further reports that the number of acres supposed to be in said farm is seventy five and a half, but the agreement between your Justice and the said Purchaser is, that the same shall be surveyed, and that the said purchaser shall pay for only such number of acres as the Farm actually contains, at the rate of One Hundred Dollars per acre.

Your Justice further reports that he is fully satisfied that the purchase obtained for the said Farm is amply sufficient. The gross amount of sales, of the number of acres supposed to be in said Farm viz. Seventy Five and a half actually holds out is $7,550.00.
