

No. 4409 Equity

running thence with the first line thereof North fifty seven degrees West thirty five perches to a stone planted at the end of the first line of a tract of land called "I have it now" surveyed for Barnet Surpe the tenth day of March Eighteen hundred and one for one and three quarters of an Acre then with the outlines thereof South fifty two degrees West ten perches to a stone planted South thirty Eight degrees East seven perches to a stone planted at the end of seven perches on the seventh line of a tract of land called "I'll see whose the land will be" and with the outlines thereof South fifty two degrees West thirteen perches to a stone planted South forty five degrees East seven and a quarter perches to a stone planted end of three and a half perches on the thirty second line of a tract of land called "The Recovery on Drac's Lot" and with the outlines thereof four courses viz South sixty Eight degrees West Eighteen and a quarter perches to a Black Oak with four notches South nine degrees East twenty perches to a stone planted South thirty eight degrees West twenty eight and three quarter perches to a maple with six notches South sixty nine degrees West four and a half perches to a stone planted then North fifty four degrees West thirty eight perches to a stone planted North eleven degrees East fifty seven perches to a stone planted North twenty six degrees East thirty two perches to a White Oak tree marked with two notches standing at the end of ninety seven perches on the first line of the aforesaid land called "The Recovery on Round Meadow" then with the outlines thereof three North fifty seven degrees West sixty three perches to a stone planted North twenty two degrees East forty perches to a stone planted North forty six degrees East One hundred and four and a half perches to a stone planted then South Eighty degrees East fifty perches to a stone planted at the Beginning of a tract of Land called "Separation" resurveyed for John Bess the twenty eighth day of November seven hundred and ninety two for One hundred and fifty nine and a half acres and with the outlines thereof three courses South Twenty one degrees East One hundred and thirty eight perches to a stone planted South twenty one degrees West fourteen perches to a stone planted South twenty degrees East One hundred and twenty perches to a stone planted at the end of Eighteen and a quarter perches on the fourth line of the aforesaid tract of land called "Stone Enough" then with said line South fifty eight degrees West twenty perches to a stone planted then North fifty two degrees West Eighty seven perches to a stone planted then with a straight line to the first mentioned place of beginning containing One hundred and ninety two and three quarters of Acres of Land more or less Beginning for that tract of Land "I have it now" at a stone planted for the Beginning of a tract of land called "The Recovery on Round Meadow" and running thence North fifty seven degrees West thirty five perches to a stone planted South fifty two degrees West ten perches to a stone planted South thirty eight degrees East seven perches to a stone planted at the end of seven perches on the seventh line of a tract of land of land called "I'll see whose the land will be" then North sixty two degrees East seven perches South forty three degrees East thirty three perches to a stone planted at the end of the twenty first line of a tract of land called "Good Luck" altogether then with a direct line to the first mentioned place of beginning containing one and three quarters acres of land more or less also all that parcel of Land being part of a tract of land "I'll see whose the land will be" Beginning for said parcel of land at a stone planted and running thence North thirty Eight degrees East fourteen perches to a stone planted at

Exhibit No 1