

No. 1589 Equity

Whereupon there being no other witnesses present to be examined, and further time being required for the production of Evidence, the said Commission was adjourned to the 19th day of July, A. D. 1880; at which time and at the place aforesaid, I, then and there, proceeded to take the following testimony, to wit.

John B. Bartholow, a witness of lawful age, produced upon the part of the Complainants, being duly sworn & examined to Interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Complainants & herewith returned, deposes and says, to the

Testimony of
J. B. Bartholow

- 1st Int: - Waived, as to this deponent
- 2d Int: - She is dead: She died, during the year 1876 or 1877, in Frederick County, Md.
- 3d Int: - She died intestate.
- 4th Int: - She died. It consists of about eighty-nine acres of Land, situated in Frederick County, Maryland, and worth, about 800 $ I look, at "Exhibit A" now here shown me: Said "Exhibit A," correctly describes said Real Estate.
- 5th Int: - She left a husband, surviving her named Henry Faithful, who is dead. He died, during last winter in Frederick County, Maryland.
- 6th Int: - Waived, as to this deponent
- 7th Int: - In my opinion said Real estate, cannot be divided, amongst the parties interested, without loss, & injury, and I think that it would be for the benefit of all the parties, infants as well as adults, that said real estate should be sold and the proceeds thereof, distributed, amongst the parties entitled; because if said real estate is divided, the parcels would be too small to admit of advantageous cultivation, or sale.
- 8th Int: - I know nothing further.

Whereupon, there being no other witnesses present to be examined and no further time being required for the production of Evidence, the commissioner, closed the said Commission, and herewith returns the same under his hand, and seal on this 19th day of July A. D. 1880.
