Filed Augt 18, 1876.

To the Honorable the Judge of the Circuit Court for Frederick County as a Court of Equity.

The answer of Sarah J. Miller to the Bill of Complaint of Jacob Miller in this Court filed against her, and others.

This Respondent admits the execution of the Mortgage referred to in the Bill of Complaint, but is wholly ignorant as to what portion of the Mortgage debt has been paid.

Answer of
Sarah J. Miller

This Respondent admits that her husband died intestate, as alleged in said Bill and that an administration has been granted upon his estate, that this respondent is his widow, and that the children are properly named in said Bill of Complaint, and that all of said children are under twenty one years of age.

This Respondent denies that she appropriated to her own use without right the horses and colts named in said Mortgage, or any other property named therein but says that said horses, mares and colts were her own separate estates, and that her husband had no right in law and no authority from her to sell or mortgage the same.

This Respondent claims that she is entitled to dower in the lands and premises mentioned in the proceedings in this case, and prays the Court to make a just assignment to her of her dower therein, or to dismiss her with her reasonable costs as to your Honorable Court may seem right and proper.
