

No. 11714 Equity

Barnhart, who was a Cousin of Ann R. Miller, deceased. Further this deponent knows not.

10th Sub: - She had no personal estate.

11th Sub: - Yes, we did, and the same is still due, owing and unpaid.

Mrs Upton Anders, a witness of lawful age, produced upon the part of the Complainant, being duly affirmed and examined to Interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Complainant, and herewith returned, deposes and says to the 1st Sub: - I have known all of them for many years.

2d, 3d, 4th & 5th Subs - Waived as to this deponent.

6th Sub: - Yes. She is dead. She died on her farm in Frederick County, Maryland, in February, 1881.

7th Sub: - Yes, sir, named George Miller, who resides in Frederick County, Maryland. She left no children.

8th Sub: - No, sir. She left neither father nor mother, nor brothers nor sisters.

9th Sub: - No, sir. She left children of two deceased Cousins, on the part of the father.

William Barnhart was the father of Mrs. Miller. His father was named John Barnhart. He left two sons, William Barnhart and John M. Barnhart and John M. Barnhart, and John M. Barnhart had two children, John M. Barnhart and Catharine, who married James Jones. John M. Barnhart Jr. married Sarah J. Warner. He died leaving two children, namely, John I. Barnhart residing in Frederick County, Maryland, and Alfred W. Barnhart, residing in Baltimore City, Maryland. Catharine Jones died leaving the following children, namely, Ellen, wife of Charles M. Warrum; Grace, wife of Conrad Wattenhoffer and Harry Jones, all adults, except Harry Jones, who is an infant under twenty-one years.

John I. Barnhart, a witness of lawful age, produced upon the part of the Complainant, being duly sworn and examined to Interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Complainant, and herewith returned, deposes and says, to the 1st Sub: - I know all the parties and have known them for some years.

2d, 3d, 4th, & 5th Subs - Waived as to this deponent.

6th Sub: - Yes, sir, she is dead. She died in February 1881, on her farm in Frederick County, Maryland.

7th Sub: - Yes, sir, named George Miller, who resides in Frederick County, Maryland. She left no children.

8th Sub: - No, sir, she left neither father nor mother, nor sisters nor brothers.

9th Sub: - No, sir. She left children of two deceased cousins on the part of her father.

William Barnhart was the father of Mrs. Miller. His father was named John Barnhart. He left two sons namely; William and John M. Barnhart. John M. Barnhart had two children, namely, John M. Barnhart and Catharine who married James Jones. John M. Barnhart Jr. married Sarah J. Warner. He died leaving two children, namely John I. Barnhart who resides in Frederick County, Maryland, and Alfred W. Barnhart residing in Baltimore City, Maryland. Catharine Jones died leaving the following children, namely,

Testimony