No. 4753 Equity

In the Circuit Court for Frederick
County, in Equity.
May Term, 1882.

Petition of Trustees

The Petition of Mary M. Zimmerman and Fleet Staley Trustees in the above cases, respectfully represent unto your Honors that the purchasers of the Real estate sold by them as said Trustees in the above cause and reported to this Honorable Court, which sales have been duly ratified and confirmed, are anxious and willing to pay the whole purchase money for said lands bought by them - that these Trustees are willing to receive it and believe that in as much as the whole amount is small and considerable expense would be saved by a single distribution of the proceeds of said sale, it would be to the interest and advantage of those interested that said whole amount should be so received, but these Trustees represent that according to the terms of sale they cannot do so, unless your Honorable Court pass an order to that effect. These petitioners further represent that all the parties are willing that your Honors should pass such an order, and to that end these petitioners pray your Honors
