

No. 4590 Equity.

The Bill in this case, alleges the death of Ann Clay in Carroll County Maryland. That she did testate, and left as her executor, the Complainant in this Cause. That she left surviving her, a son, John C. Clay; a son, Theodore A. Clay; a son Arthur J. Clay; a daughter, Marietta Trayer; and two grand children Rosa Christ and Harry Christ. That John C. Clay and Harry Christ are non residents.

Order of Publication

The Bill also alleges that said Ann Clay, was seized and possessed, in Equity, of a tract of land situated near New Market, Frederick County, State of Maryland, containing 29 Acre One rood and ten square perches of Land.

That the said land has been decreed to be the land of Mrs. Ann Clay in No. 4581 Equity.

The prayer of the Bill is that a sale, may be had by decree of the Court and proceeds distributed among the heirs of said Ann Clay deceased.

Notice is hereby, given to said non-resident defendants of the substance and object of said Bill and amended Bill in the above cause and they are hereby warned to appear before the Circuit Court for Frederick County, sitting in Equity, on or before the 25th day of January, A. D. 1882, provided a copy of this order of Publication be published in some Newspaper printed and published in Frederick County for four successive weeks, three months before said day above fixed for the appearance of said parties.

Dated this 14 day of September 1881.
