Testimony

7th Int: Was the said Andrew Coffman, or not indebted to the Complainant James C. Coffman at the time of his death, and if yes, for what, and to what amount, and has such indebtedness ever been paid? Look at the paper now shown you, marked "Exhibit No. 1," and state whether or not the same contains a true statement of such indebtedness? State fully all your knowledge with reference thereto?

7th Ans. - The said Andrew Coffman was indebted to James C. Coffman the Complainant for money loaned in the sum of $52.<sup>00</sup>. I look at the paper marked "Exhibit No. 1." It is to the best of my knowledge and belief a true statement of such indebtedness, and the indebtedness has never been paid.

8th Int: - Was or was not the said Andrew Coffman, at the time of his death indebted to the Complainant William Coffman, and if yes, for what, and to what amount, and has such indebtedness ever been paid? Look at the paper now shown you marked "Exhibit No. 2," and state whether or not the same has ever been paid, and whether or not the said paper contains a true statement of such indebtedness? State fully all your knowledge with reference thereto?

8th Ans. - The said Andrew Coffman, was indebted to the Complainant, William Coffman for work done by the said William after he became of age, to the amount of $42.<sup>00</sup>. I look at "Exhibit No. 2," and I find it to be a true statement of said indebtedness to the best of my knowledge and belief, and to the best of my knowledge and belief the same has never been paid.

James C. Coffman, a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Complainants, being duly sworn and examined to interrogatories filed with the Commissioner by the Complainants, and here-with returned, deposes and says, to the —
