

No. 4411 Equity.

Ans. Yes, sir, I did. I owned the property near the "Baptist Meeting House," in Carroll County; it was house and two or fourteen acres of land.

8th Int. From whom did you buy the same?

Ans. I bought it from my brother Hopkins.

9th Int. What price did you pay for the same, and whence did you obtain the money?

Ans. Four hundred dollars, ($400.) I worked for the money.

(Excepted to, as leading after answer)

10th Int. What personal property did you own, when residing in Carroll County, prior to your marriage?

Ans. I had a horse, that was, about all.

(Excepted to, as leading, after answer)

11th Int. What other means were you possessed of, at the time you resided in Carroll County, prior to your marriage?

Ans. Well, I don't recollect whether I had or not.

12 Int. What disposition did you make of your property, real, personal and mixed, and means, when you removed from Carroll County?

Ans. I sold the house and lot.

(Excepted to)

13th Int. To whom, if to any one, did you sell or convey any such property; state fully, and in detail?

Ans. To Peter Bishop's girls for $800, I think; it was in, and about three years before I was married.

14 Int. What price did you obtain for the same?

Ans. I have answered by previous interrogatory.

15th Int. What disposition did you make of the money obtained from such source?

Ans. I bought the Myrum property, and invested in it; but that did not pay the whole amount.

16th Int. When did you remove to Frederick County?

Ans. In 1860, as I said before.

17th Int. When did you first contract to purchase any real estate in Frederick County; and what real estate is it?

Ans. It is the Myrum property, containing fifty-eight (58) and some perches.

18th Int. When did you first receive, or obtain possession of any real estate, in Frederick County?

Ans. The Spring following.
