

No. 4411 Equity

Ans. I scuddled it for her, as she ordered,

94th Int. Did you purchase lime and farming implements as she ordered?

Ans. No, sir, I purchased them myself.

95th Int. Did you purchase material for the new house and contract with carpenters and tinnors, as she ordered?

Ans. Yes, sir, I did.

96th Int. Then she directed you to contract with Mr. Hayes for the tin work did she?

Ans. She did not tell me to contract with anyone in particular; she didn't name Mr. Hayes.

97th Int. What did she tell you in reference to said contract?

Ans. She just told me to go ahead and build the house, she had the money.

98th Int. Did you tell her she had no money, that it was all yours, or words to that effect?

Ans. No, sir, I did not.

99th Int. Did she permit you to conduct the farming operations just as you pleased?

Ans. Yes, of course she did; as long as I was farming, she didn't bother herself about it, she had enough to do about the house.

(Excepted to)

100th Int. Did you ever hear her say Mrs. Stoner should be paid his claim?

Ans. I don't know as I did particular, I don't know as I did hear her say any thing to that effect.

101st Int. What did you hear her say on that subject?

Ans. I don't know as I heard her say any thing at all about Stoner, as far as I can recollect.

102d Int. When you bought the line of Stoner, and afterwards, did represent the land to him to be yours?

Ans. Not as mine, in particular - not square down; I called it our farm.

103rd Int. Did you tell your wife of having purchased lime from Stoner?

Ans. I did; she knew I was hauling lime from Stoner.

104th Int. Did you ever hear her say she guessed she would sell the Rip real estate, and pay Stoner out of the proceeds of sale?

Ans. No, indeed, I never heard her say that.

105th Int. Did you build the new house as agent for your wife?

Ans. I did not.

106th Int. Who built them, you or she
