

No. 4411 Equity.

Ans. I don't recollect of saying any thing of the kind to him.

119th Int. What did you say to him when you spoke to him about the roof?

Ans. I asked him to do trimming and spouting about the house.

120th Int. How did you explain to him what house you meant?

Ans. I didn't explain any thing at all to him.

121st Int. How did you let him know what house?

Ans. He didn't ask me any thing about it; he didn't ask me whose house it was.

(Excepted to as leading)

122. Int. How did you speak of it when you called at George W. Rowe & Son, for the price of glass?

Ans. I don't recollect any thing at all of calling at George W. Rowe & Son, to ask the price of glass.

123d Int. Did you call on George W. Rowe & Son, at Emmittsburg, for the price of glass?

Ans. I have no recollection of calling on them at all.

(Excepted to as leading)

124 Int. Did you, while the house was building, speak to George W. Rowe, or Eugene L. Rowe, or both, at their store, in Emmittsburg, of the house, at your house?

Ans. I did not.

125th Int. Did you get the deed from the Dr. Kibbick tract, before you paid the purchase money?

Ans. Yes, sir; I got the deed first.

126th Int. How soon after the date of the deed, did you pay for the property?

Ans. I don't recollect how soon.

127th Int. State as nearly as you can?

Ans. Well, I suppose, as near as I can recollect, it was two or three years; that's the nearest I can come at it.

128th Int. What security did you give for the purchase money?

Ans. I gave my individual note for it.

129 Int. Was there no cash payment?

Ans. I paid part in cash, and gave my note for the balance.

130th Int. How much did you pay in cash, and when?

Ans. I declare, I hardly know how much I paid in cash; I am not able to say, at the time the deed was given, as near as I can recollect.

Testimony of
Jas. A. Brundage