

No. 4411 Equity

10th R. D. Int. When you promised your wife to convey the property to her, did you mean and intend to keep that promise?

Ans. I did intend to keep that promise.

11th R. D. Int. Had you not then, when you went to consult Judge Maulby, intend to keep the promise and make her a deed for the property?

Ans. When I went to consult him, I intended to do as he said.

12th R. D. Int. At the time you took the deeds for the property, in your did you know or believe that the property belonged to your wife?

Ans. I knew, at the same time, that the property belonged to my wife, and that her money paid for it.

(Excepted to)

13th R. D. Int. If you knew then that the property belonged to your wife, and was paid for by her money, why did you want to consult Judge Maulby as to whether you should convey it to her or not?

Redirect testimony of James
A. Cruduff.

Ans. Why, she insisted that the property belonged to her and should be deeded to her; that was the reason that I consulted Judge Maulby.

(Excepted to)

14th R. D. Int. You say that she insisted that the property should be deeded to her, and you agreed to deed it to her, why then did you consult Judge Maulby, as to whether you should deed it to her or not?

Ans. Because Judge Maulby was her counsel.

15th R. D. Int. Did or did not your wife insist on having the property deeded to her before Judge Maulby was consulted?

Ans. She did.

16th R. D. Int. Was it then and at that time, before Judge Maulby was consulted that you promised to deed it to her?

Ans. Not until I had consulted Judge Maulby.

17th R. D. Int. When she insisted upon having it deeded to her, before you consulted Judge Maulby, what did you reply to her?

Ans. I told her that the property belonged to her and her money paid for it.

18th R. D. Int. Did she not ask you to deed it to her?

Ans. She did.

19th R. D. Int. What did you tell her in reply to that?

Ans. I told her I would consult with Judge Maulby, her counsel.

20th R. D. Int. Who suggested Judge Maulby, as the counsel to be consulted, you or your wife?

Ans. My wife.
