

No 4982 Equity

Interrogatory required by Rule No 39 of Equity Rules; the witness answers I know of nothing further.

By William H. Grace

Daniel H. Rutzahn a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Plaintiff being duly sworn and examined to Interrogatories filed with the Examiners and herewith returned deposes and says

To the 1st Inter

1st Ans. My name is Daniel H. Rutzahn my age 45; my residence Frederick County Maryland

To the 2nd Inter

2nd Ans. I know the parties to the suit and have known them for some years

To the 3rd Inter

3rd Ans. I knew John H. Beall for about 30 years, he is dead, he died about September or October 1883.

To the 4th Inter

4th Ans. He died without leaving a will

To the 5th Inter

5th Ans. He died seized and possessed of real estate situated in Frederick County. Exhibits Nos 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 and 10 now shown me describe the same.

To the 6th Inter

6th Ans. The Real Estate can not be advantageously divided among the parties interested for the reason that it is so situated that to divide it into so many parts would impair its value as a whole. It would be to the advantage of all the parties interested to have the same sold and the proceeds divided among them.

To the 7th Inter

7th Ans. He left a widow surviving him named Matilda Beall. Her age is about 57 or 60 years. As far as I know she is in very good health for her age

To the 8th Inter

8th Ans. He did leave the following children as his heirs at law viz: Margaret C, the wife of William Ketur; A centia the wife of George Coomwell; Annelia A. the wife of Levi Gladhill; Rebecca, the wife of Richard Roles; Fanny, the wife of Calvin Doffer; Naomi Beal who is unmarried; Charles E. Beall, unmarried and Robert L. Beall unmarried. All these parties are residents of Frederick County and all are adults over twenty one years of age except Robert L. Beall who is an infant under twenty one.

To the General Interrogatory required by Rule No 39 of Equity Rules, the witness answers; I know of nothing further
