one put on a bid and I put on 25 cts more per acre
4th Int.

How many bids did you make on the property?

4th Ans. I only made one that I know of
5th Int.

What was it?

5th Ans. My bid was $59.⁰⁰ per acre
6th Int.

What did you do when you made this bid?

6th Ans. I asked Mr. H. H. Still how many acres there were and how it was sold
7th Int.

What were you doing when the property was knocked down?

7th Ans. I was standing talking to Mr. H. H. Still
8th Int.

Did you know the property was about to be knocked down?

8th Ans. I did not.
9th Int.

Had you intended to bid further on it?

9th Ans. Yes sir, I had
10th Int.

Up to what figures had you intended to bid the property?

10th Ans. Well, I had before I left home, made up my mind to bid about $63.⁰⁰ or $65.⁰⁰ per acre no further
11th Int.

Was this still your intention when you were at the sale?

11th Ans. Yes sir.
12th Int.

Then why did you not bid again when the property was at $59.⁰⁰ and was against you?

12th Ans. Well, me and Mr. Still were talking and it was knocked off. I had not much chance and when it was knocked off, of course it was knocked off.
13th Int.

Then you did not know it was about to be knocked off when it was in fact knocked off?

13th Ans. No sir.
14th Int.

Did you hear the auctioneer crying, going! going! &c.

14th Ans. I heard him say that a couple of times.
15th Int.

Was the property or not quiet on after the last bid long enough to give you a fair chance to bid again in the way usual at sales?

15th Ans. Well I don't think it was.
16th Int.

Had it been would you have bid again?

16th Ans. Yes sir.
17th Int.

You were talking to Mr. H. H. Still; was or was not the knocking off of this property a surprise to you?

17th Ans. Yes sir, it was.
18th Int.

Who were you bidding for?
