

No 4858 Equity

13th Ques. No Sir. Mr. Stull bid also, that is my recollection, Sir.

14th Cross Int.

Which Mr. Stull do you refer to?

14th Ans. I don't know his first name.

15th Cross Int.

Did you say about the time of knocking the property down that you had another sale and could not stay there all day?

15th Ans. It is likely I did, I thought we ought to have sold the property in half of the time we did.

16th Cross Int.

Did Mr. Mauloby and Mr. Levy or either of them during the progress of the sale request you not to knock the property down without notifying them?

16th Ans. Not that I recollect of, I made some points and I recollect of Mr. Levy saying to me once or twice; "Don't knock it down yet Capt."

17th Cross Int.

How long were Messrs. Mauloby and Levy behind the straw stack?

17th Ans. I don't know. I don't know when they started there.

18th Cross Int.

Did you see either Mr. Mauloby or Levy at the time you knocked it down?

18th Ans. I did not, I was looking for bidders and not persons at that time and don't know when they went there.

19th Cross Int.

Were not Mauloby and Levy bidders?

19th Ans. Yes Sir. Mr. Mauloby was at any rate

20th Cross Int.

If you were looking for bidders and knew Mr. Mauloby to be a bidder, why did you not look for him?

20th Ans. He had ceased to bid and Mr. Ramsburg was the previous bidder and I had turned my attention to him.

21st Cross Int.

You say he had ceased to bid; had he not only ceased to bid whilst one bid was put on by a new bidder?

21st Ans. I did not see Mr. Mauloby and Mr. Ramsburg had put on the last bid and I was looking to him and he declined to bid and I knocked it down.

22nd Cross Int.

You say Mr. Ramsburg declined to bid; did he decline by saying he would not bid or simply by not responding to your efforts to get a bid?

22nd Ans. He did not respond to my efforts, I warned him that I was going to knock it down.

23rd Cross Int.

What was Mr. Ramsburg doing at the time?

23rd Ans. Standing there looking right at me within a few feet of me.

24th Cross Int.

He was not talking to any one at that time, was he?

24th Ans. No Sir. He was looking right at me and I at him expecting him to bid.

25th Cross Int.

Did Dr. Miller decline to let you put up the property after it was knocked down; and when you asked him what was to be done?

25th Ans. I asked Dr. Miller and I think he says "let it be" or something of that kind. He did not authorize me to put it up again. Then he says if there was any gentleman
