To the 5th Ans

5th Ans. I look at Exhibit J now shown me. The names there to are the signatures of Charles Woolford, and Julia A. His wife -

To the 6th Ans

6th Ans I know that they (my sister Julia A. and her husband Charles Woolford) promised to execute a Deed for their interest in my father's Estate to my mother for the $600⁰⁰ mentioned in that receipt, which my mother paid them. That amount was to be in full payment of interest in my father's Lands. She was always ready and willing to execute the Deed to my mother (the Plaintiff) whenever her husband would bring her over, but he always made some excuse for not doing it, and he failed, and neglected to unite with her, and afterwards she died in 1873 intestate, and so the Deed was never made. He told mother when he gave her the receipt that it was as good as a Deed.
