Petition of Andrew Albaugh

Ellen Harshman et al. in Equity To the Honorable the Judges of said Court - The petition of Andrew Albaugh respectfully states, That he is wholly unable to comply with his contract of purchase of the real estate described in this cause, that he fully expected certain persons to endorse for him and enable him to comply but he is unable now to get said persons to do so, and the circumstances of this petition are very limited, that he is willing to let said sale be set aside at once and to pay the sum of twenty five dollars which will pay the expenses in whole or in part he has caused, and the trustee is willing to accede to this - He therefore prays the court to set aside said sale and not to ratify the same and as in duty he doeth.
