

No 5163 Equity

owing by the said Mary Lefevre, at the time of her death, but he imagined that the same now in the hands of said J. Hiram Taylor, ought to be applied to the payment of the claims of your orator, and other creditors of the said Mary Lefevre, so far as the same will extend; and that any deficiency in said personal estate ought to be supplied by a sale of all, or such part, as may be necessary, of the Real Estate of the aforesaid, debtor - To the end, therefore,

1) That an account may be taken, under the direction of this Court, of the said debts, so, as aforesaid, due to your orator, and of all other debts which were owing by said Mary Lefevre, at the time of her death, and which still remain unpaid; and also of the personal estate and effects of the said Mary Lefevre, received by or for the use of the said J. Hiram Taylor, as administrator, aforesaid.

2) That the said personal estate may be applied, in due course of administration, in payment of the debts of the intestate due to your orator, and all other creditors who may come in and contribute to the expenses of this suit.

3. That the real estate of the said Mary Lefevre, deceased, or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose, may be sold for the payment of so much of the aforesaid debts as may remain unsatisfied, by the application of the personal estate, as aforesaid.

4) That your orator may have such other and further relief as his case may require.

May it please your Honors to grant unto your orator, the writ of Subpoena directed to the said J. Hiram Taylor, an adult, who resides in Frederick County, Commanding him to be and appear either in person or by Solicitor in this Court, on or before a certain day to be named therein, to show cause, if any he has why a decree ought not to be passed as prayed; and also to pass an order of publication according to law, requiring the unknown heirs of Mary Lefevre, deceased to be and appear in this Court either in person or by Solicitor, on some certain day to be named in said order to answer the premises, and abide by and perform such decree as may be passed therein.

And, as in duty bound, &c.
