

No 5226 Equity.

24^x Int. What did Mr Todd say or do from the time he came back with Mr. Rogers and Mr. Hill until Lot No. 4 was finally knocked down?
 Ans. He didn't do anything, only asked Mr. Rogers to give him a little time to reflect.

25^x Int. What did Mr. Rogers say in reply?

Ans. I don't just know what he said, but he said train time was coming and he had to be to Frederick, at 4 o'clock for the train; and he had no time to spare.

26^x Int. Did Mr. Todd make any reply to this?

Ans. I don't know indeed.

27^x Int. Did Mr. Todd remain with Mr. Rogers from the time he came back to the sale with Mr. Hill & Mr. Rogers, or did he go back to the house where Mrs. Todd was or in that direction?

Testimony

Ans. He was not remaining with Mr. Rogers but was standing inside the yard and when he asked Mr. Rogers for time to reflect - he started for the house where Mrs. Todd was or in that direction.

28^x Int. Did he come back before the property (Lot No. 4) was finally knocked off to Mr. Rogers?

Ans. Yes he came back.

29^x Int. After he came back, what if anything did he say?

Ans. I could not say positively what he did say - I know he said something but I was talking to a gentleman, and did not understand what Mr. Todd did say when he came back.

30^x Int. To the best of your knowledge and belief, what did he say?

Ans. I don't know at all. I did not understand what he did say.

31^x Int. What was next said or done by anybody?

Ans. Mr. Rogers and his company got into his carriage and drove off.

32^x Int. Has not Lot No. 4 knocked down to Mr. Rogers after Mr. Todd had made the remark you did understand?

Ans. Mr. Rogers said Mr. Hill (Auctioneer) knock down the property at $916.

To the Hon. Court by the Examiner.

That is all I know sir.
