and the balance towards paying the westminster note, when it stood idle for a number of years, and then it was sent to different parties for repairing cuppies for $60. and L. R. Waeche got that money, then there were two little rooms rented up stairs and I wanted the rent to pay on the taxes and the parties paid L. R. Waeche claimed the rent, and I have never collected it, that was all the rent there was.

A showman asked the privilege of putting some stuff in there and I told him if it was not occupied he could do it, nothing was ever paid for it and I don't know whether it is there now or not.

38x Int. Did you ever receive any of the rent since 1876 except the $200. you have spoken of?

Ans. No Sir.

39x Int. who signed the lease to Briggs & Gannack?

Ans. I never signed it or saw it.

40x Int. who rented the property to them?

Ans. L. R. Waeche. He mentioned the matter to me, I told him it was all right, I did not have any thing to say about it.

41x Int. I understand you to say that you were in the employment of the Monocacy Valley Rail Road, which was repossessed by your brother, How came you to leave, & when? (Excepted to)

Ans. I left this spring a year, and the reason was he sent me word that he could get along with me, He got offended with me about something, I never learned what.

42 Int. State whether or not you made demand on your brother for the payment of the principal or interest of this mortgage? If so when, if not, why not?

Ans. I have asked him for that frequently but I can't give the dates, I have also asked him to help to pay the interest on the westminster note and he just turned it down by saying he did not have any money, He never paid but $5. of interest on the westminster notes, Re Direct.

1 Int. Did he pay any of the principal on the westminster note outside of the rent mentioned by you?

Ans. No Sir, my mother advanced me and I gave her my notes for the amount she advanced me, and the proceeds of certain machinery included in my mortgage, L. R. Waeche sold and applied an said notes, but he did not pay any of his own money.

2 Int. you stated that he did not give you the figures of the firm's assets and liabilities at the time of the firm's settlement, and that you did not look at the books, why did you not do that?

Ans. Because he told me there was enough there to pay off all liabilities and made me that offer and I accepted and walked right out.

To the Gen. Int. by the Exams.
