

No. 3886. Equity.

Ans. Jas. M. Kerrigan, 37 years. Committing I know the parties.
 2^d Q^t. State whether or not, within the last 15 years, you rented the shop on Wauke-Bros. property - in Mechanicstown of Jas. J. Waresche and how much if anything you paid him for the use of the same? (Excepted to. Q^d & Ans.) Ans. I rented that shop from him in 1877. I have really forgotten the amount
 I was to pay, I did not pay him anything, I moved some implements there put partitions in the shop, by arrangement with him and was to take it off the rent; I then sold out to Jas. Pinard; I went to see Mr. J. Waresche before I made the deal and told him of my going to sell out to Mr. Pinard and asked him if he was satisfied for Pinard to pay the rent for the balance of the year and he said he was.
 In the Gen. Inst. by the Exam.
 Ans. No Sir, I do not.

James M. Kerrigan

Leonard R. Waresche a witness of lawful age produced on the part of the Defendants being duly sworn and examined deposed and says 1st Q^t. State your name, age & residence?

Ans. L. R. Waresche, 46 in March. Mechanicstown. I am one of the defendants
 2^d Q^t. State whether a partnership was formed between you, Jas. J. Waresche & Albert Foreman, if so when and what was the amount each put in?
 (Excepted to)

Ans. There was, in the spring of 1870. Between that time and the spring of 1873, each party put in as follows.

L. R. Waresche $5111.34

Jas. J. Waresche 4691.85

Albert Foreman 299.89

First L. R. & Jas. J. Waresche was to get 6% int. on their investment and the balance was to be divided equally amongst the 3 partners. Foreman was to be interested in the real Estate.

3^d Q^t. State how much the different partners drew out of the firm (Excepted to)

Ans. L. R. Waresche drew out $876.81

Jas. J. Waresche " " 204.66

Albert Foreman " " 510.21

4th Q^t. State whether or not Foreman withdrew from the firm and if so when? (Excepted to)

Ans. He merely quit in July or March, 1873.

5th Q^t. State whether in 1874 a new firm was formed and if so composed of whom?

Ans. There was, composed of Chas. B. Caswell, and Waresche Bros & Co.
 Caswell withdrew from the firm before the deed for Chew & Hockdale was made.

6th Q^t. State whether or not in the Summer of 1876 a house was built for Albert Foreman by the firm of Waresche Bros & Co for $1885.10 and whether or not that amount was paid by him?

Ans. Such house was built for him by Waresche Bros & Co. The amount was not paid by him. It was after his refusal to pay for that house that he quit the business.

7th Q^t. State whether or not Jas. J. Waresche retired from the