May Hagan et al. by their next friend Henry J. D. Hagan,

No. 6051. Equity. In the Circuit Court for Frederick County, in Equity.

May Hagan et al.

The Answer of the Franklin Savings Bank of Frederick to the Bill of Complaint filed in the above entitled cause against itself and others, answers and says:-

First. That this respondent admits all the allegations and charges contained in the various paragraphs in said Bill, to be true as therein stated and charges.

Second. And this respondent further answering says, that it admits that the said Richard P. Hagan in his lifetime, together with the defendant Charles M. G. Hagan, was indebted to this respondent in the sum of two thousand dollars which said indebtedness was secured by a mortgage on a part of the real Estate mentioned and described in this proceedings, that said mortgage debt is still due, owing and unpaid, with interest thereon from the day of that this respondent is willing and agrees that the said real Estate shall be sold under and by virtue of a decree to be passed by your Honorable Court in this cause, provided its mortgage debt with all interest thereon be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of said lands according to its priority and that the same remain a lien on said proceeds until paid.

In testimony whereof, witnesses the seal of said Corporation and the signature of A. D. Carey President thereof.

A. D. Carey Pres. Franklin S. Bank.
