Joshua J. Dill, a witness of lawful age, produced on the part of the plaintiff, being duly sworn and examined, deposes and says,
1st Int. State your name, age and residence, and whether you know the parties to this suit?

Ans. Joshua J. Dill, Age 43, Frederick City, Maryland, and the parties to the suit are the Commissioners of Charities and Corrections, and Simon Schmitt, all of whom I know.

2nd Int. where is the said Simon Schmitt at present, and how long has he been there?

Ans. At Montrose Hospital, where he has been for a number of years I saw him there yesterday.

3rd Int. who has supported the said Simon Schmitt since he has been at the said institution?

Ans. He has been supported by the public authorities ever since he has been there, according to the books of the said institution.

I am a member of the Board of Charities & Corrections, have access to its records and examined them specially in this case, and found that nothing had ever been paid for his maintenance and support.

4th Int. Look at Exhibit No. 3, now shown you and state whether the same is a just & true account for the maintenance of said Schmitt for the time covered by said bill.

Ans. I look at it, and it is a just and true account for the time embraced therein.

5th Int. Do you know whether he has (the said Simon Schmitt) any property or estate? If yes, state what the same is, where it is situated and what is its value.

Ans. He has a house and lot on East Second St. Frederick City described in Exhibit No. 2, shown me, and it is worth about one thousand dollars, I know of no other property that he has.

6th Int. whose business is it to furnish the inmates of the institution supplies for their maintenance, and who has, in charge the financial affairs of said Montrose Hospital?

Ans. Commissioners of Charities & Corrections, the Plaintiff in this case, furnish all supplies, pay all bills, & collect all accounts. The Treasurer has charge of the financial affairs.

In the General Cont. by the Examiners

Ans. I know of nothing else.
