8^b - 8^c - 8^a & 8^e. and state whether or not they describe said real estate and the alienations therefrom,

Ans. Yes, he did. I know the land generally, to the best of my knowledge, said exhibits shown me describe the real estate and alienations therefrom.

4th Int. Do you know the parties to this suit? If yes, how long have you known them and where do they reside? State whether any of them are infants.

Ans. Yes, I know the parties to this suit, all of them. Have known them from childhood. They all live in this County with the exception of Alice V. Heschling who resides in Washington County, Maryland. All are adults except Harry, Minnie, Albert, and William Cooper, who are infants.

5th Int. State whether Charles Cooper left a widow surviving him and any children or heirs at law, if so give their names.

Ans. He did leave a widow surviving him, one Mary A. Cooper, who is about 64 years old, and whose health is only tolerable. He left as his heirs at law your orators, James C. Cooper a son, married to Lily M. Cooper - Alice V. Heschling, Minnie C. Cooper, daughters, and Howard C. Cooper a son, Charles H. Cooper, a son married to Margaret Cooper - Mary C. Hankman, a daughter married to Israel Hankman - Ann C. Gaver a daughter married to Philip S. Gaver - Sarah J. Elsie a daughter married to Philip Callan Elsie Harry Cooper Minnie Cooper, Albert Cooper, and William Cooper, the four last named being children of one John W. Cooper, a son of the said Charles Cooper, and who died in the year 1889.

6th Int. State to the best of your judgment, the value of the real estate above referred to.

Ans. The Home Place is worth about $35. per acre, the rest of the land is worth about $4 an acre.

7th Int. State whether or not the real estate referred to is susceptible of a advantageous division among the parties in interest or whether it would be to their interest and advantage to have said real estate sold, claims paid off and the proceeds divided among said parties?

Ans. The land is not susceptible of division and it would be to the interest and advantage of all, infants as well as adults to have the land so sold, and the proceeds divided.

In the Genl. Int. by the Examiner

Ans. I know of nothing else.
